WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

RUTH CHATTERTON (Ilsa Von Ilsen), long a famous stage and screen actress, first appeared on the stage at the age of Fourteen. Her famous Broadway roles include leads in "Daddy Long-legs" and "A Marriage of Convenience" with Henry Miller, also "Mary Rose," "Come Out of the Kitchen" and "The Green Hat." Among Miss Chatterton's outstanding hits in films are "Tomorrow and Tomorrow," "Madame X," and "Dodsworth."

ROBERT STEWART (Albert Von Echardt), an actor of long experience, is known to Ivoryton audiences for his parts in "Arsenic and Old Lace" and "Design For Living" earlier this summer.

RICHARD CAMP (Robert), a promising young actor has appeared on Broadway in Eddie Dowling's "Men to the Sea," the revival of "Little Women," "Three Is a Family" and "This Too, Shall Pass."

JOAN CROYDON (Amalia) has recently returned from a road tour in "Rebecca." She has done considerable work for Belasco, Morris Gest and Arthur Hopkins as well as in radio. Ivoryton audiences will remember Miss Croydon in "The Late George Apley," "Night Must Fall" and "I Remember Mama."
